

Kathy is a plant taxonomist of 30+ years and author of Common Plants of The Western Rangelands. Kathy has skills in rare plant, rangeland and plant community studies in all eco-regions of Alberta and adjacent areas. She has taught plant identification courses and mentors young professionals. Kathy has a background in farming and ranching, and an empathy with the primary producer and his concerns. Kathy is a recipient of 2005 Emerald Award along with Clare.