

1 Ends	Rev Date : 2/3/2016	Rev No : 6	Ref No 63074
The profession is advanced and as directed by the Agrology Profession Act, public interest is protected and served in a manner that justifies the resources expended.
1.1 Professional Practice of Agrology	Rev Date : 2/10/2014	Rev No : 6	Ref No 56010
Regulated members will demonstrate competent, ethical practice of agrology.
1.1.1 Registration	Rev Date : 2/3/2016	Rev No : 7	Ref No 63151
Practitioners who are qualified for registration and practicing agrology are registered.
1.1.1.1 Education Institutions and Educational Awareness	Rev Date : 2/3/2016	Rev No : 3	Ref No 63456
Educational institutions in Alberta are aware of the academic qualifications required for registration in the profession of agrology.
1.1.1.2 Interprovincial Mobility	Rev Date : 12/20/2011	Rev No : 2	Ref No 34456
Where equivalencies exist all regulated agrology practitioners have interprovincial mobility.
1.1.2 Practice Standards	Rev Date : 2/3/2016	Rev No : 5	Ref No 63161
Standards for competent practice exist for all registered agrology practitioners and practitioners meet the standards.
1.1.2.1 Knowledge Requirements	Rev Date : 12/13/2013	Rev No : 1	Ref No 49444
Core knowledge requirements exist for each practice area.
1.1.3 Continuing Competence	Rev Date : 2/3/2016	Rev No : 3	Ref No 63188
Members have access to a Continuing Competence Program and participate in a mandatory, monitored continuing competence program.
1.1.4 Ethics	Rev Date : 2/3/2016	Rev No : 4	Ref No 63188
Members practice in accordance with a Code of Ethics.

1.2 Public Confidence

The public has confidence in professional Agrologists

Rev Date : 12/10/2014
Rev No : 3
Ref No : 56010

1.2.1 Value of the Profession

Public understands the value of the Agrology profession to society and the services that the regulated members provide.

Rev Date : 2/11/2011
Rev No : 5
Ref No : 29812

1.2.1.1 Signing Authority

PAgs and RTAgs have signing authority related to their registration committee approved area of practice.

Rev Date : 2/3/2016
Rev No : 2
Ref No : 63456

1.2.1.2 Resource for Government

AIA is recognized as a reliable resource on policy and legislative initiatives related to the agrology profession.

Rev Date : 2/3/2016
Rev No : 3
Ref No : 63456

1.2.2 Access to Member Registry

Member information is available to the public.

Rev Date : 12/13/2013
Rev No : 2
Ref No : 49438

1.2.3 Complaints and Discipline

A publically accessible, fair and unbiased complaint and discipline process is in place and managed by the profession.

Rev Date : 12/10/2014
Rev No : 3
Ref No : 56010

1.2.4 Non-Member False Affiliation

The public is protected from individuals who falsely claim an affiliation with the profession of Agrology..

Rev Date : 12/10/2014
Rev No : 2
Ref No : 56010

1.2.5 Insurance – Errors and Omissions

Members have insurance for errors and omissions.

Rev Date : 2/3/2016
Rev No : 2
Ref No : 63457

1.2.6 Public Informed About Public Member Appointments

The public is informed that public members are appointed to the AIA council.

Rev Date : 2/3/2016
Rev No : 1
Ref No : 63457