

1 Ends

The profession is advanced and as directed by the Agrology Profession Act, public interest is protected and served in a manner that justifies the resources expended.

Rev Date : 2/3/2016 Rev No : 6 Ref No : 63074

1.1 Professional Practice of Agrology

Regulated members will demonstrate competent, ethical practice of agrology.

Rev Date : 12/10/2014 Rev No : 6 Ref No : 56010

1.1.1 Registration

Practitioners who are qualified for registration and practicing agrology are registered.

Rev Date : 2/3/2016 Rev No : 7 Ref No : 63151

1.1.1.1 Education Institutions and Educational Awareness

Educational institutions in Alberta are aware of the academic qualifications required for registration in the profession of agrology.

Rev Date : 2/3/2016 Rev No : 3 Ref No : 63456

1.1.1.2 Interprovincial Mobility

Where equivalencies exist all regulated agrology practitioners have interprovincial mobility.

Rev Date : 12/20/2011 Rev No : 2 Ref No : 34456

1.1.2 Practice Standards

Standards for competent practice exist for all registered agrology practitioners and practitioners meet the standards.

Rev Date : 2/3/2016 Rev No : 5 Ref No : 63161

1.1.2.1 Knowledge Requirements

Core knowledge requirements exist for each practice area.

Rev Date : 12/13/2013 Rev No : 1 Ref No : 49444

1.1.3 Continuing Competence

Members have access to a Continuing Competence Program and participate in a mandatory, monitored continuing competence program.

Rev Date : 2/3/2016 Rev No : 3 Ref No : 63188

1.1.4 Ethics

Members practice in accordance with a Code of Ethics.

Rev Date : 2/3/2016 Rev No : 4 Ref No : 63188

1.2 Public Confidence

The public has confidence in professional Agrologists

Rev Date : 12/10/2014 Rev No : 3 Ref No : 56010

1.2.1 Value of the Profession

Public understands the value of the Agrology profession to society and the services that the regulated members provide.

Rev Date : 2/11/2011 Rev No : 5 Ref No : 29812

1.2.1.1 Signing Authority

PAgs and RTAgs have signing authority related to their registration committee approved area of practice.

Rev Date : 2/3/2016 Rev No : 2 Ref No : 63456

1.2.1.2 Resource for Government

AIA is recognized as a reliable resource on policy and legislative initiatives related to the agrology profession.

Rev Date : 2/3/2016 Rev No : 3 Ref No : 63456

1.2.2 Access to Member Registry

Member information is available to the public.

Rev Date : 12/13/2013 Rev No : 2 Ref No : 49438

1.2.3 Complaints and Discipline

A publically accessible, fair and unbiased complaint and discipline process is in place and managed by the profession.

Rev Date : 12/10/2014 Rev No : 3 Ref No : 56010

1.2.4 Non-Member False Affiliation

The public is protected from individuals who falsely claim an affiliation with the profession of Agrology..

Rev Date : 12/10/2014 Rev No : 2 Ref No : 56010

1.2.5 Insurance – Errors and Omissions

Members have insurance for errors and omissions.

Rev Date : 2/3/2016 Rev No : 2 Ref No : 63457

1.2.6 Public Informed About Public Member Appointments

The public is informed that public members are appointed to the AIA council.

Rev Date : 2/3/2016 Rev No : 1 Ref No : 63457