

CCP Speaker Biography- Doug Lyall, Chief Sales Officer, HUB International Prairie Artic Region

Doug has over 20 years of Commercial insurance and leadership expertise with a proven track record for driving success through focusing on client growth and profitability. During his time in the industry he has shown his ability to develop a positive community presence for his companies.

Throughout his career he has focused Commercial Insurance, specializing in Construction and Professional liability. Doug has used his knowledge of the challenges faced by Agrologists and assisted in the writing of the first professional liability wordings for the association.

Now focused on overall client and industry growth he leads the Alberta Region for HUB international.